Mr. Wendell Robertson
PRINCIPAL

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the White Plains student body for the high standards you have set for yourselves.

You realized that school authorities could not enforce standards that you did not accept for yourselves. You accepted the responsibility of setting up a code of behavior with the highest intention of carrying it out to the best of your ability. You knew that the only way to do this was to be honest with yourselves. You started with the questions, "What will make me a better student and what will make White Plains a better school?"

In like manner, the members of the senior class will be facing decisions for the future. Whether or not you will obtain your desired goals will be left to you. I hope you will use as mature mind in your future choices.

Our present society is requiring that the better jobs be given to those who have a good education. You have the final choice to further your education.

White Plains has laid a foundation for you, now the challenge facing you is to go out and build.

SECRETARY: Mrs. Olene Cash

OFFICE WORKERS: Judy Hutto; Secretary, Mrs. Cash; Sandra Faulkner; and Judy Roberts. Not shown-- Jan Whitesides.

CLASS PROPHECY

I am a crystal ball. The seniors have asked me to look into their future and see what it holds for them. The year is 1978 and this is what I see:

Linda Austin is married now and she lives in Alaska! It's the perfect life for her; she gets to sleep six months without being disturbed, which makes up for all the sleep she lost over the Senior play. Shirley Austin has become a great bookkeeper. She finally found her a man and is living in their two story house, with its winding stairway, on top of Choccolocco Mountain. Robin Brimer has opened his own paint and body shop and is very successful. One reason might be because his wife Martha (formerly Martha Hutto) keeps running into people and keeps him very busy.

Lucille Moran is rearing her house full of children. She has two boys and three girls. She and her husband own a mobile home on the backwaters and have a yacht parked along side of it. Patsy Brown, the great lover and traveler, has been so many places in last ten years she can't count them because she hasn't got that many fingers and toes. She's leading a very successful life between husbands (she can't decide between Huntsville and Heflin). Jerry Burns has become a high society multi-millionaire. He made his money from doing commercials for Marlboro. He is now part owner of the crazy house. He's been there so many times they think he owns the place. Asa Carter has become a great politician, after four years as governor of Alabama he has become President of the United States. The first act he did was to have the capitol moved to Choccolocco. Derry Clay has been elected playboy of the year! Together he and Allen Murphy run one of the biggest gangs in White Plains and Iron City. They own twelve gambling casinos and three bars. Their places are continually raided by Joel Taylor, Chief of Police, because they wont let him in on the big time. Joel goes around telling the little kids to play in the traffic.

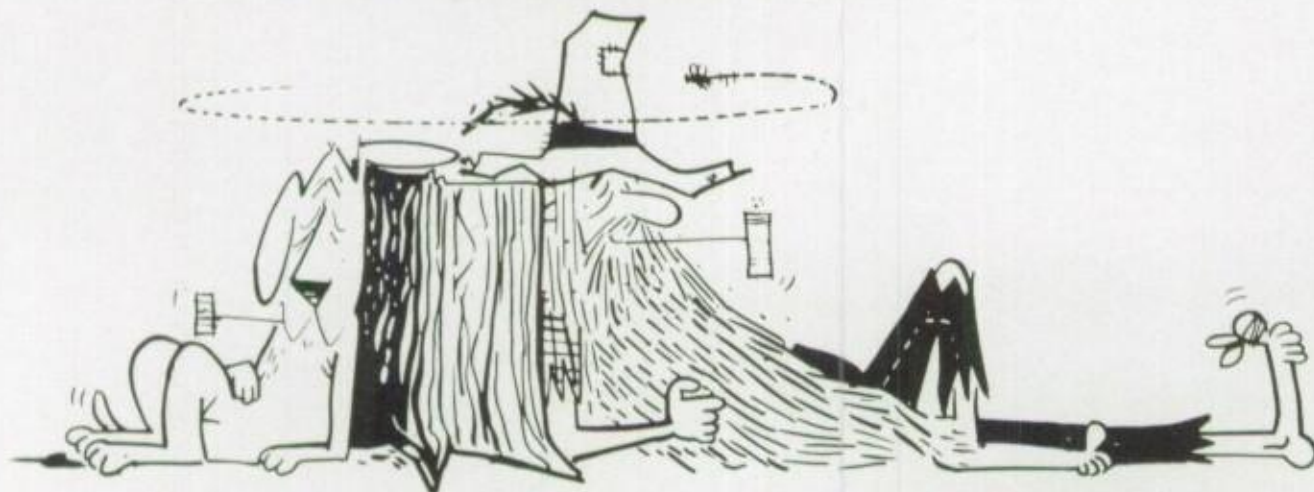

Mildred Clay, Donna Smith, Susan Burnham and Jackie Jones have all become school teachers. Donna is teaching physical education, she enjoyed this so much while she was in high school. Jackie is a Commercial Teacher. She came back to White Plains and beat Mrs. Stokes out of her job. Mildred and Susan specialize in teaching kids how to drive teachers "batty." They graduated from college with honors in this subject. Well, it stands to reason that Sandra Faulkner's last name has been changed. She lives in Choccolocco on top of the hill. Every morning you can see her back out in her wide track going to her office in the White House. She is the new Secretary of State.

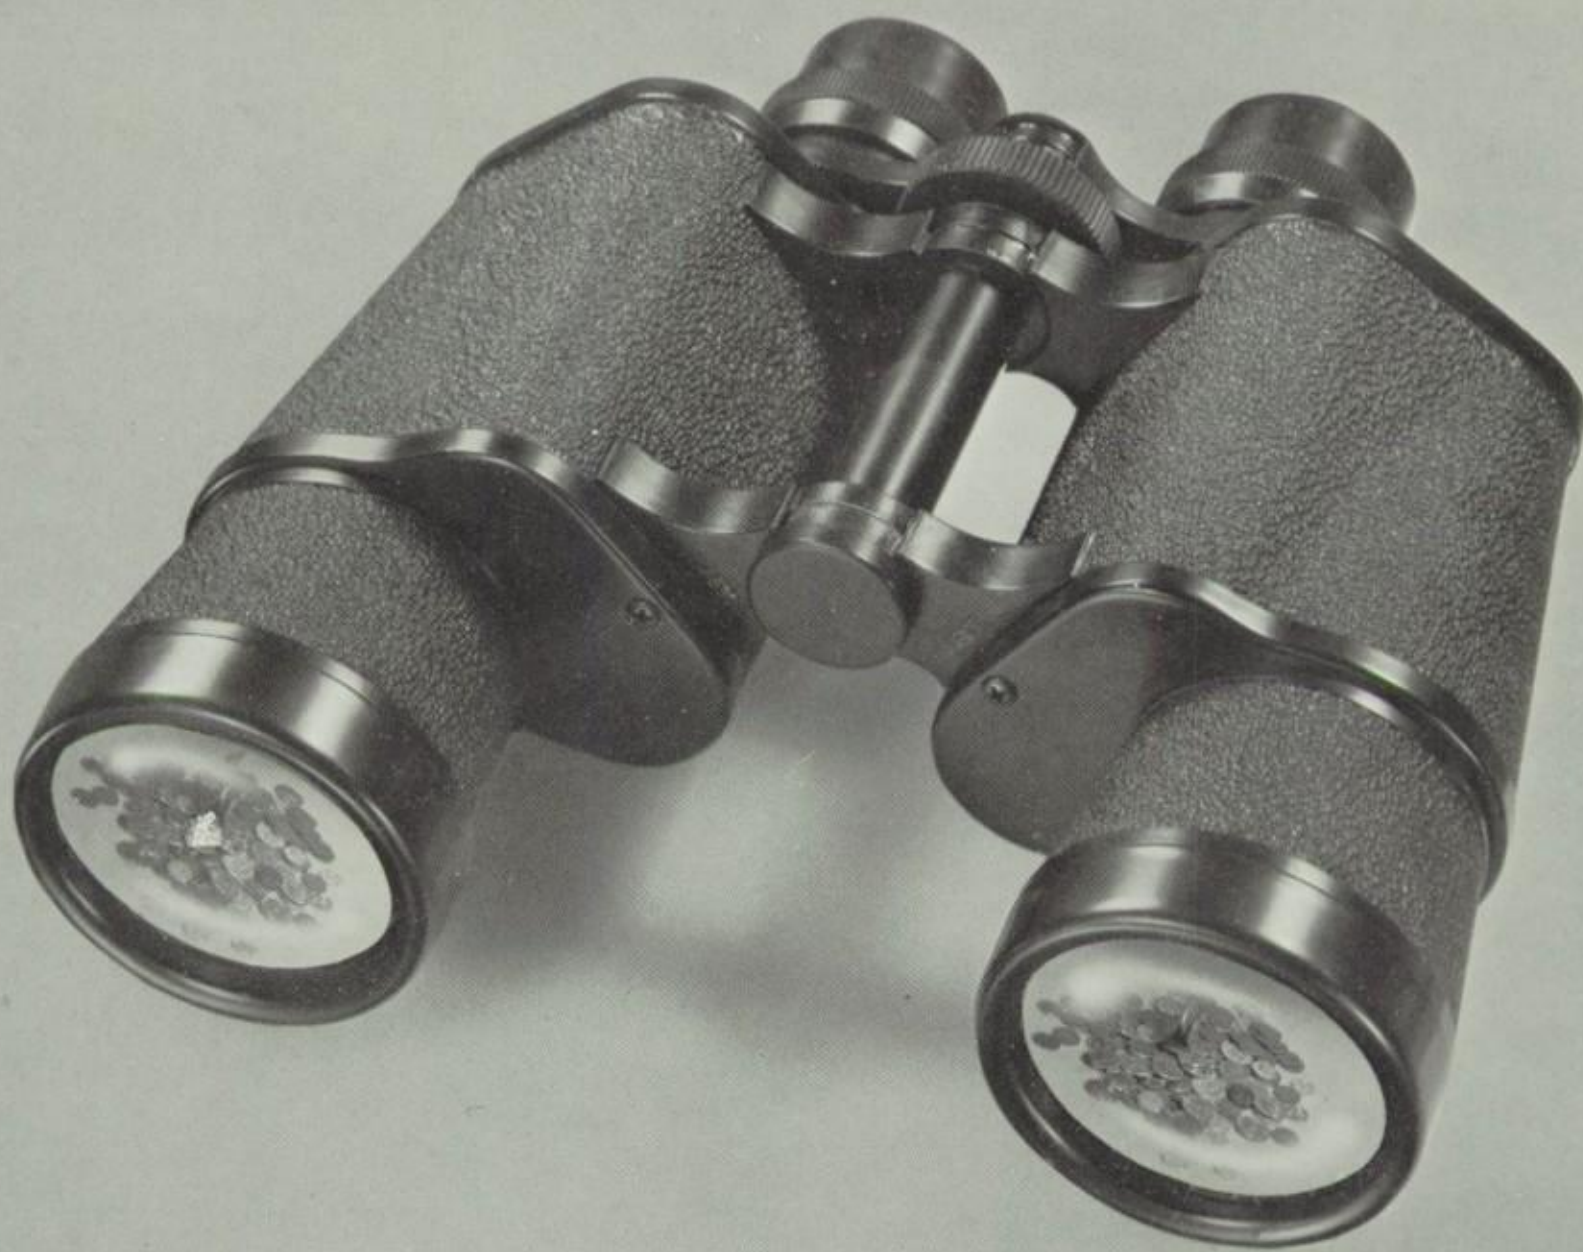

Wayne Faulkner owns his own used car lot. He sells 1959 VW's. His policy is "Don't ask me no questions and your car is in fine shape." So if you're in the market for a no good car go see Wayne. Donnie Ford has just done his third time in jail. Joel keeps picking him up for all his wine, women, and song. It is not much for first two, it's the last one that really gets people. His singing is terrible. Robin Harper is now serving as Vice President of the United States. Yes sir, can you imagine that! The first bill he got introduced to the Senate was a law against Mrs. Hart's teaching English. He says she is a menace and was destroying teenagers' language. Guess who owns Gibsons now? You're right, Jackie Portwood. She worked there so long she finally made enough money to buy it. She got married not long after school was out. Between cooking for her husband and running Gibsons she has a very happy life.

Kaye Harris is very happily married and has a lovely home in Oxford. After ten years of happily married life, Kaye still has to come to White Plains to sit in the typing room during sixth period. (She just can't seem to break the habit.) Also Kaye works with Jerry to keep up with his Marlboro shows. Brenda Sprayberry has gone into the jewelry store business. Her many boyfriends have given her so many rings she had enough to go into business. Her merchandise sells for a dollar to two ninty-eight. She rides to work on her battery-operated bulldozer. William Kent joined the Marines the day after graduation and has become a Colonel. He gets to boss the guys around when they start organizing clubs. Thomas Grimes holds the heavyweight championship title. He won this by selling diet pills to the other fighters. He is so big it takes a pickup truck to carry him. He may loose his title because he has his heart set on buying a VW from Wayne.

Virginia Phillips has opened a large chain of stores. She sells the mini-mini skirt. People say that Mrs. Stokes is one of her steady customers. Sharon Penny has become a doctor. She specializes in tonsils. She is the world's first doctor to do a successful tonsil transplant. In her spare time she messes around with trying to invent a new hair color. She hopes she can find a nice color to match her tonsil surgery. Virginia Moore has become an internationally famous hair dresser. She's built her brick mansion in Rabbittown and everyone comes from miles around to look at her house. Laura Turner finished her years at Gadsen Jr. College and then became a psychiatrist. She has opened her office in Iron City. Her fees are cut in half on Mondays for students having tests and teachers giving them. She gives special rates to teachers who have students being taught by Mildred and Susan. Shirley Mitchell has brought class to Iron City. She has built a diner on a tower which revolves slowly. Her specialty of the house is raisins--raisins in everything. She picked this trick up in lunchroom at W.P.

And so this is what I predict the Seniors will be doing in ten years. I wish them all good luck and best wishes in whatever they do!
